

RAIN/ALTERNATE DATES

In the event of a weather cancellation of firing and as an option, participants may elect to fire on any of the monthly PRSC League Match dates in lieu of firing on Sunday if you attended the Peconic SAFS. For the Camp Smith SAFS, participants may elect to fire at a regularly scheduled Hudson Valley Highpower League Match. All 2008 league dates can be found on the web at <http://www.nyhighpower.com>.

ELIGIBILITY

This event is open to the public. Adult civilians must be NRA or NYSRPA members. A $5.00 discount will be given to new adult NYSRPA members who join with their SAFS application. High Power Rifle competition is a sport requiring stamina and physical flexibility. All participants should be in good health and in reasonably good physical condition and be able to assume the prone and sitting firing positions for sustained periods. Youths must be at least 14 years old and members of an NRA affiliated club, BSA, ROTC, JROTC or a recognized youth organization. All applicants must have previous experience and familiarity with firearms. This course is NOT for persons who have never handled firearms.

CONDITIONS:

- Participants are required to comply with all safety rules and instructions.
- Students are required to attend and participate in the complete seminar training on Saturday in order to shoot on Sunday.
- All youths under age 18 must be accompanied by an adult sponsor or youth group leader. One (1) adult may sponsor and accompany a group.
- Youths under 16 years old must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian or submit written parental permission and be accompanied by a responsible adult as required by NYS Penal Law, section 265.20.

- All students are required to act as scorers and target operators.

RIFLES USED FOR THE SAFS AND FOR LOAN

- This training is limited to the U.S. Service Rifles, M16 (AR-15) or commercial equivalents. A limited number of AR-15s will be available for loan with priority given to juniors and ladies.
- Students borrowing rifles are required to purchase caliber .223 ammunition which will be sold for approximately $15.00 for 50 rounds. No other ammunition will be fired from borrowed rifles. These prices are subject to change. Students are encouraged to bring their own service rifles both days.
- Personal firearms must not be brought into the classroom. Personal rifles should be brought to the afternoon dry fire training.

AMMUNITION

- Live ammunition must not be brought to the Saturday seminar. Armor piercing, incendiary and tracer ammunition is not allowed. Fifty (50) rounds of ammunition are required per shooter.
- While we should have sufficient commercial ammunition in caliber .223 for sale for personal rifles, please try and secure the appropriate ammunition to bring with you. We regret that we can no longer offer ammunition at a discount to Juniors or Military.

CERTIFICATES OF TRAINING

- A certificate of training will be issued to each student that completes both phases of training. A certificate of training, issued by a CMP authorized SAFS or clinic, fulfills one of the requirements for the purchase of a U.S. Army surplus service grade M1 from the CMP.

EQUIPMENT & CLOTHING

- Hearing and eye protection are mandatory for the firing phase. A limited number of shooting coats, mitts, gloves and mats are available for loan to students. Students are encouraged to bring their own shooting equipment and clothing to include; rifleman jackets, spotting scopes or field glasses. Students should wear appropriate outdoor clothing both days to include; warm clothing, sweaters, sweat shirts, denim or heavy cloth trousers, boots, hats and rain gear. Students should bring a notebook and pen.
- NO FOOD SERVICE WILL BE AVAILABLE AT EITHER SAFS LOCATION! Students must bring their own breakfast, lunch, snacks, beverages, etc. each day.
